

Animal Care Protocol Approval for Thesis Submission

Date

Chair, University Animal Care Committee (UACC) Room 230, Discovery 2

A thesis is being prepared for submission to the Department in order to schedule a thesis defense. The research described in the thesis involves the direct use of vertebrate animals or tissues obtained from vertebrate animals used in research. Can you please confirm that this research was carried out under a valid animal care protocol from the SFU UACC?

Name of student

Student email address

Title of thesis

Name of Supervisor:

Student signature

Department

Graduate secretary to whom the form will be returned

Graduate secretary email address

NOTE: Students may send by email from their SFU email account, an unsigned completed form to sfu-uacc@sfu.ca for review, referencing the applicable SFU Animal Care Protocol number.

---

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

The research described in the thesis above was done under approved Animal Care Protocol

_____ Valid from _____ to _____.

The student listed above was included as research staff on the Animal Care Protocol, has taken the required CCAC online course, and was authorized to carry out the research.

The research described in this thesis is exempt from Animal Care Protocol requirements

Dr. Allen Thornton
Chair, UACC

cc: Senior Supervisor

---

Animal Care Committee Coordinator
On behalf of Dr. Allen Thornton